Senior Class Will

I, Garland Fuller, being of sound mind, do hereby bequeath to Delmo Collier my seat in the Senior homeroom and my A on deportment to Billy Horne.

I, George Roberts, do unsoundly and insanely will the following: my position on the football team to Bill Horne and my position on the basketball team to Howard Dean.

I, Helen Strength, will my ability to make 95 on shorthand to my sister, Doris, and my seat in the Senior homeroom to Elb.

I, Johanna Farmer, with a cold in my nose, will my ability to "get by" on 75 to any poor soul who needs it and my ability to tell tall tales to Jimmy Stallard.

I, Ann Fletcher, being of straight body and any mind, leave to Paul Kilgore my ability to get by with everything and come out with nothing.

I, Peggy Gardner, will my seat in the Senior homeroom to my sister, Joyce, and my ability to pass English to Charlotte Thompson.

I, Patty Wilson, will my power of standing in the halls to my friend, Howard Dean, and my position as cheerleader to Velta Collins.

I, Albert Snodgrass, being of sound mind and body (I hope), will all my worthwhile things to anyone who can do a better job than I. (That is, in football and basketball.)

I, Janet Beverly, being of sane mind (I think), and weak heart, will my position as Arrow Editor to anyone who feels he can take the responsibility.

I, Billy Sturgill, being of sane mind and big body, hereby bequeath my seat in the Senior homeroom to Ben and my civics grades to Jackie Hatfield.

I, Jack Blanton, being of strong body and soul, will my seat in the Junior homeroom to any unlucky Senior and my position on the Arrow to anyone who can get 30 words a minute.

I, Barbara Stidham, will to Janice Allen my position on the basketball team, to Nancy Elam my ability to skip classes, and to Sid Dorton my position as cheerleader.

I, Jenelle Bolling, will my homeroom seat to Billy Horne and my ability to giggle in Mr. Bartley's class to June and Betty Jean.

I, Joan Deane, will my seat in the Senior homeroom to my sister Lonza and my position as News Editor on the paper to anyone who has a "nose for news" -- preferably Stickly Mullins.

I, Louise Fields, will my seat in the Senior room to Myrtle Willis and my ability to get along with boys to Frankie Brummit.

I, Billy Collins, will the following: my ability to get out of spelling to Velta and Ben and my ability to get out of classes to Shirley Kivett.

I, Bobby Kilgore, will my ability to make good grades to Myrtle Willis and my seat in the Senior homeroom to Troy Gardner.

I, Thelma Dean, being of sound mind, wish to will my position on the basketball team to my sister Nancy, and "The Thing" (my typewriter) to Jimmy Dean.

I, Creed Beverly, Esquire, being insane and unsound and feeling good, will to Leroy Graham my position on the Arrow staff; to Bill Roberts, I will my ability to flirt.

I, Jean Dale, will my ability to eat candy in study hall (and keep my figure) to "Spooter" Steffey and my ability to talk to Tiny Fugate and Charlotte Thompson.

I, Marie Walters, will my books to Clara Hall, my grades to Norma Jean Countiss, and my physics book to any stupid jerk who is crazy enough to want it.

I, Billy Sproles, do hereby will the following: my ability to be stubborn to Jimmy Elam and my ability to avoid girls to any boy that thinks he needs it.

I, Mildred Perry, will my seat in the Senior homeroom to Margaret Fisher, my ability to giggle to Marjorie Wells and my ability to flirt to Maclene Collier.

Jimmy Flanary and Toncie Ellis will anything they have (nothing) to anyone, anywhere, anytime --- they need it.

I, Simpson Adams, being of sound mind, will my good looks to Elb Bolling so he can have success on "Thackers Branch" and my ability to make B on deportment to Howard Dean and Jack Hatfield.

I, Betty Lou Dean, being of unsound mind, wish to will my ability to get along with Mr. Noel to Barbara Baker and my seat in sixth period study hall to Grady Maggard.

I, Jimmy Lipps, will all the fun that I have had in school to Clara Mae, and my ability to hold two girls at once to Ben Collins.

I, Carma Olinger, will my seat in the Senior homeroom to my brother, Murrel, if Charlotte Thompson doesn't get it first, and my ability to talk to my sister, Frankie.

I, Jenny Amos, being of sound mind, will to the following: my years of cheerleading to anybody who has a big mouth and my job as school banker to anyone who counts.

I, Skinny Dotson, being of no mind and very little body, will viciously to some dumb Junior my position on the Annual staff, and my seat to Sid Dorton and Betty Jo Carter.

I, Earl Short, being of sound mind, (I think), do hereby will my seat to Elb Bolling and Jimmy Stallard. To a certain girl I will my ability to make good grades and C on deportment.

I, Annette Jones, will my half seat (I share it with Jeanette Adams) to anyone who can fit into it, my ability to pass shorthand to Donald Jones and my typing speed to Paul Kilgore.

I, Artie Bolling, bequeath to the following: To Sheril Hayden my position as typist on the Arrowhead, to Johnny Couch my seat, and to Bobby Jones my ability to keep out of trouble.

I, Margaret Dale, will my seat to my brother, J.C., my place in the trio to my sister, Norma Jean, and my position as secretary of the Senior class to anyone who wants a headache.

I, Effie Jean Bolling, will my position on the basketball team to Betty Jo Carter, my typing power to Juanita Sturgill, and my seat in the Senior homeroom to Patty Miller.

I, Peggy Belcher, will my position as Business Manager on the paper to Barbara Baker and my position on the basketball team to any poor soul who wants it.

I, Peggy Anderson, will my position on the Annual staff to anyone who wants it, my ability to make passing grades to my sister, Betty Jo, and my seat in the Senior homeroom to Sheril Hayden.

I, Jack Bruce, will to Alice Steffey my ability to make A on deportment and my ability to pass without studying to Jimmy Orr (can you do it, Jim?)

I, Jeanette Adams, leave my remaining possessions to the following: My half seat in the Senior room to any Junior left without one and my ability to make B on deportment to Elb Bolling.

I, Herbert Reynolds, do hereby will my position as "The Old Man of the Senior Class" to Hoyt Bentley. To Molehead, I leave my job as Annual Sports Editor.

I, Mildred Bryant, will my position as manager in basketball to Doris Carter, my position as Feature Editor on the newspaper to Sid Dorton, and my ability to lay out of school to Nancy Elam.

I, Betty Hylton, being of unsound body and insane mind do hereby will my seat to Denver Sturgill (if he gets there), and my ability to get along with Miss Barr to Margaret Fisher.

I, Bobbie Elam, being happy and sane, will all my good times to Nancy, Jimmy, and Emmit, and my Arrowhead position to anyone who wants it.

I, Stuart Keene, being in poor health and insane mind, will my football position to my brother, Paul, and my ability to get to school at the last minute and still not be late to Bill Roberts.

I, Garrett Kivett, will my old dirty gym socks to Elb Bolling, who is in constant need of them, and my position as president of the senior class to anyone who will take it.

I, Ada Jean Hopkins, do hereby will my seat in the Senior homeroom to Denver Sturgill and my passing grades in English to my brother, Franklin.

The District 8 Sportsmanship Trophy, held here by Johanna Farmer, was awarded to Wise High for the first time. The trophy is awarded to the school in either Lee, Scott, Wise, or Dickenson Counties, which has the highest sportsmanship rating by game officials. Wise's record mark of 99.7 per cent was a combined rating of school officials, cheering sections, spectators, and the players.

The Future Secretaries of America

Wonder what her ambition is?

There's nothing like beautiful girls!

Hi Effie,

I read your article on, "Women in The Air Force." Jeanette Adams, Betty Hylton, and Ann Flecher are all taking basic at Lackland. You said in your article that you and Hedda Hopper got your information at Lackland. While you were there did you see any of the girls? You may have seen Stuart or Herb Reynolds, they are both in the Air Force. Our own lazy George is NOW a very, very good cadet pilot.

Guess what? Thelma Dean is an F.B.I. agent now. The first case she was assigned to, after completing her training, she cracked wide open. Betty Lou has taken the course of matrimony, so has Peggy Gardener.

Jim Flanary is a traveling salesman now and the other day State Cop, Jack Blanton, fined him $100 and costs for speeding in his new Nash he bought from Billy Sproles. Bum told me to inform Garrett and Clarence Ellis that he has charge of Nash sales, since both of them are traveling for a living.

I was in the East End the otner day and guess what I saw? On his front porch sat Butch Vanover, he's married now and as he sat there, propped back against the wall, spitting his tobacco, I thought of our wonderful Civics class. Butch goes to church now, believe it or not, I think Reverend Jack Bruce had something to do with that.

Since I need my teeth checked, I'm going to see if Garland Fuller will have time to check them before I go back to school. He may not because from what I've heard he seems to really be the "dentist of the day." Midge has had a little trouble with her bones since she has taught physical ed. but yesterday she saw a wonderful chiropractor. You guessed it, Johanna Farmer, and she is really making money. Peggy Belcher is her assistant. Jimmy Lipps and Bobby Kilgore aren't working for chicken feed either! Bobby is a civil engineer and Jim is contracting. I haven't gotten to talk to Jim to ask him what he thinks about Simpson Adams (Republican) our new governor. You know what a staunch Democrat Jim has always been.

Oh Effie! You should see Margaret Dale's new home, it's a dream and another dream is Ada Jean Hopkin's. And bombshell of bombshells, Tootsie Elam now has sextuplets. She could name them Eeny, Meenie, Minie, and Moe but she'd still have to find two more names. I saw Mrs. Bill Stallard (Janet Beverly) the other day and she's still as pretty as a picture.

A bunch of our class are secretaries now. Helen Strength, Louise Fields, Joan Deane, Artie Bolling, and Patty Wilson. Patty and Albert are married. They both work, he in a powder plant and Patty as a secretary.

Jenelle Bolling and Peggy Anderson are telephone operators. Who do you think is modeling for Macy's in New York? Of course you probably know more about her than I do but anyway you might not know about her new job. It's Barbara. She's one that can really fit in those clothes.

I wish you could have been at church here Sunday. Mildred Perry spoke during the Sunday School hour. She has been to India trying to bring a little light to the people there who don't believe in God. I wish you would write an article about her. If you could interview her I'm sure you would find material that would be interesting to people all over the U.S.

While passing the school yesterday I noticed what a dead place it was, so I went to Birchfield and visited our new one. The faculty was in conference so I had to show myself around. After their meeting was over, I was surprised to find myself shaking hands with Billy Joe Sturgill, principal. He has his own automobile to come to and from school and he has a lovely wife who helps him very much with his work. Marie Walters is rooming with them and teaching up here too. She has the Seniors, poor Marie, if the Seniors of today are like we were. That reminds me, the year after we left, Mrs. Brantley was sent away for a long rest cure. I wonder why?

By the way, I almost forgot about our most important alumnus, Grissles Collins. He is in the Navy. He hasn't been home but once and I was not here to see him but I'll bet he really looks tops in his officer's dress blues.

Carma Lee Olinger is living on Coeburn mountain but there is a slight difference. She is married and lives on her own farm. I think she must have married a pretty rich guy. Some girls have all the luck.

Carlos Carter is the mechanic for that big strip job out in the Hurricane, he's about the best on that heavy equipment.

Jenny Amos used to say that she could do anything. Well, I sure believe it because she is now head cheerleader at U.T. There's some guy down there that she cheers for all the time. He's Captain of the team, Bellville Rhae Mason.

Oh, I almost forgot to tell you about Creed Beverly. You know, he wanted to be a teacher like Mr. Bartley, well he didn't do that but he is one of the best lawyers in the State.

I saw your picture with one of your write-ups, in TIME. You really look wonderful. When are you coming back home? Try to pick a time when I will be here and can see you.

I only have a week vacation. I guess I will go to Appalachia and propose to Tom again, but I'll probably end up going back to college. He just won't give up, and I ask him every time I come in. Maybe when he gets bald-headed and has no teeth he'll need someone to take care of him.

Seriously, Effie, I wouldn't trade anything for our days at Wise High, the wonderful teachers, and the way we said we'd lay out every day if we could. I will mention no names but there are some who wish that they hadn't wasted the days that they did. Hurry home so we can exchange memories and see our old classmates.

Well, I really must close, I didn't intend to write a book. Write me.

Love and luck,

"Skinny"
